Getting Started

In this guide we have provided explanations and sample forms to assist second to fifth year American JETs with the tax-filing process. For complete details, consult Publication 54 (Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens and Resident Aliens Abroad), which can be accessed by the link provided at the end of this guide or online at the IRS website (www.irs.gov) by searching for Publication 54.

You can either paper file (physically mail) or e-file your taxes. Unless otherwise noted, all forms covered in this guide can be e-filed. If you are interested, please see the E-Filing section later in the guide.

If you choose to paper file, which IRS address you mail your forms to depends on if you are paying or not:

- If you are not making a payment, send all tax forms to the following address:
Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service Center
Austin, TX 73301-0215
USA
- If you do have to make any payments, send them and your tax forms to the following address:
Internal Revenue Service
P.O. Box 1303
Charlotte, NC 28201-1303
USA

The IRS website (www.irs.gov) lists a lot of information to help citizens living abroad with the tax-filing process. Go to “File” in the upper left corner and then “International Taxpayers” on the left sidebar. You can find most of the general questions about tax law answered there and at the following address:
<https://www.irs.gov/individuals/international-taxpayers/us-citizens-and-resident-aliens-abroad>

You can also contact the Philadelphia International Taxpayer Service Call Center by phone (+1-267-941-1000, not toll-free) or fax (+1 681-247-3101). They are operational M-F from 6:00am to 11:00pm Eastern Time.

Depending on which state you lived in before moving to Japan, there may be extra steps to take for your individual state taxes. State taxes will not be covered in this guide, as ESID (every state is different). We recommend you check with your state tax agency - make sure to do so as soon as possible, before April 15. Generally speaking, you should confirm the following information:

- Residency rules (if you are treated as a resident / non-resident, etc.)
- If your state accepts the federal Foreign Earned Income Exclusion
- If you are filing Form 4868, whether you are required to file a separate state extension form

Tax Documents

IRS Tax Forms You Will Need to File

IRS Form Number	Form Name	Filing Deadline
Informational Forms – File separately from Form 1040
<input type="checkbox"/> FinCEN 114<sup>Δ</sup> ONLY if you had over $10,000 USD worth of currency in your foreign bank account(s) at any point in the year	Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts ( FBAR )	By April 15
Income Tax Return – File the below forms all together
<input type="checkbox"/> Form 1040	U.S. Individual Income Tax Return	With payments: by April 15 Without payments: by June 15
<input type="checkbox"/> Form 1040 – Schedule 1	Additional Income and Adjustments to Income	File with Form 1040
<input type="checkbox"/> Form 1040 – Schedule B	Interests and Ordinary Dividends	File with Form 1040
<input type="checkbox"/> Form 2555	Foreign Earned Income	File with Form 1040

Your individual tax situation may require you to file more forms than those listed above; this is merely a list of those relevant to filing with foreign income. We have listed some potential additional situations under “Notes & Resources,” but please do your own research as needed.

Support for Form 1040

You get these from someone else to reference for preparing Form 1040 and send a copy to the IRS as proof. If you e-file, just keep them for your records in case the IRS asks for a copy in the future.

	Foreign Earned Income Statement (gensen choushuu hyou)	Send with Form 1040
--	---	----------------------------

- If your address in Japan has changed since you filed last year, you should file another Form 8822 as well (see tax guide for first-year JETs) and send it to the appropriate IRS location.
- It is unnecessary to request an extension to file, but you can if you so choose by filing Form 4868 (see tax guide for first-year JETs). Doing so gives you until October 15 to send in your tax forms, but not any payments.

E-Filing

Don't want to deal with the post office? Neither does the IRS. E-filing is often more convenient, leaves less room for error, and gets your return processed faster.

Your Form 1040 tax return now requires a bit more legwork to find sites that will let you file the additional forms you need to include while working abroad. For example, e-filing Form 2555 for your foreign earned income exclusion is often not supported on "free" versions of well-known tax filing sites like *T*rboT*x* and *HR Bl*ck*. If you wish to use these sites, you may be charged $50 or more just to file Form 2555.

The IRS itself provides two services to try to help Americans e-file for free: <https://www.irs.gov/filing/free-file-do-your-federal-taxes-for-free>

The Free File Program provides free e-filing on a guided tax filing site like those mentioned earlier, so long as you meet their age and income requirements. Input your details in their Online Lookup Tool with your home address as Japan, and you will be given a list of sites that support your situation. The results should indicate that "Same criteria apply when filing with a foreign address." You must create your account via the IRS official Free File site as instructed in the link, or you may end up getting charged. The page should specifically indicate "IRS Free File Program" somewhere.

NOTE: These services often also support state filing but are not obligated to offer it for free. If/which states are free will be stated on the site and can be checked before making an account.

Alternatively, you can try out the Free File Fillable Forms (FFFF) service available to all U.S. filers regardless of age/income/etc., which is guaranteed to be free to file all included forms. These forms are filled out the same as you would a paper form, as explained in this guide, just submitted electronically. There are basic calculations pre-set in the forms (you must manually press the "Do the math" button located at the bottom of the screen), but there are no guided steps like on the sites mentioned earlier. See the IRS guide for line by-line instructions, as well as known restrictions for foreign filers using this service.

This service does not support state taxes. If you use FFFF for your federal taxes, you may need to paper file for any state taxes, as most e-file sites will not let you e-file for only state.

As of the publication of this guide, all forms we have listed as attachments to Form 1040, including Form 2555, appear to be supported for free if you qualify for these sites. This guide cannot attest to their continued support or support for any other aspect of your individual tax situation. Please review the guidelines on the IRS Free File site and list of supported forms on the site you choose, as they may be subject to change.

If you wish to extend your filing deadline, Form 4868 can also be e-filed using these sites, regardless of how you choose to file your Form 1040 later. You still must pay any taxes owed by April 15.

These resources were not designed with expats in mind so the experience may not be the smoothest, but we hope that you may be able to successfully use them to e-file for free. We cannot guarantee what will work for you, and we cannot field questions regarding e-filing.

If you were able to use any of these sites to complete your return, great! Before you officially submit your forms, review the tax return generated and make sure all the forms mentioned in this guide are included with the appropriate lines populated. Remember to print/save a copy of your return when finished – you will need it to e-file again next year. If you owe money to the IRS, follow the instructions for how to pay on the e-filing site you used, and be sure to do so by April 15.

Now, let's get into the fun part!

Foreign Earned Income Statement

The Japanese equivalent of the W-2 is called the 源泉徴収票 (gensen choushuu hyou) in Japanese, or your statement of earnings. This will act as a W-2 equivalent for the income you earned in Japan. Photocopy the form that your school or BOE gave you showing how much money you made in 2025. If you have not received it yet, ask the accountant in your school or BOE office. Indicate your name and your gross income on the photocopy and write “Foreign Earned Income Statement” across the top of the copy. You will file this copy with Form 1040 (if e-filing, keep for your records).

NOTE: You will use the amount in ③ 支払金額 later in Form 2555, and you will need to include another annotation at the bottom of the copy, so have this copy readily available.

See the following page for an example with Japanese to English translations (taken from the JET Programme GIH):

NOTE: Your Statement of Earnings should have “令和7年分” at the top.

Form 2555 – Foreign Earned Income

Form 2555 is used to exempt you from paying U.S. income taxes on the money you earned in Japan.

NOTE: The Foreign Earned Income Exclusion (FEIE) filed with Form 2555 as outlined in this guide should be suitable for most JETs, but there are limitations on certain credits and deductions you can claim when using it. You also cannot contribute to an IRA if you choose to use the FEIE and have zero U.S. earned income for the year. You can see the FAQ regarding alternatives to the FEIE (not covered in this guide).

Part I – First, enter your name and social security number. Fill in your address and employment information; enter “N/A” for Employer’s U.S. address. Your employer is “other” – put something like “foreign local government office.” Follow the instructions until you get to the part that asks what your tax homes were during the tax year. In this blank, enter your city in Japan and the date (month and year) you began living there. If you moved within Japan during 2025, make sure to list your former city as well. Make sure the whole year is covered. Month to month is enough – you do not need to specify the exact day you moved.

(For 2 Your occupation, enter either “Assistant Language Teacher” or “Coordinator for International Relations”.)

Since you will not be using the Bona Fide Residence Test, skip Part II by entering “N/A” in Lines 10.

Part III* – To meet the requirements of the Physical Presence Test, you must be present in a foreign country for at least 330 full days during any 12-month period that begins or ends in 2025. You must pass this test to allow your foreign earned income to be excludable on Form 1040.

The dates you enter on Line 16 will depend on whether you returned to the U.S. in 2025. In the following image, you can see what your Part III should look like if you did not return to the U.S. at all during 2025.

18	If you traveled abroad during the 12-month period entered on line 16, complete columns (a)–(f) below. If you have no travel to report during the period, enter "Physically present in a foreign country or countries for the entire 12-month period." Don't include the income from column (f) below in Part IV, but report it on Form 1040 or 1040-SR.

NOTE: If you returned to the U.S. in 2025, please check the annotations at the end of this section.

Part IV – Calculate your 2025 Foreign Earned Income by converting the amount ③ 支払金額 listed on your Foreign Earned Income Statement to USD using the yearly average Yen/USD exchange rate and enter that figure on Line 19. The Internal Revenue Service has no official exchange rate and will accept “any posted exchange rate that is used consistently.” You can see the Notes & Resources section for a list of sources. This guide will use the Federal Reserve Bank’s rate of $1 = ¥149.5686.

For example:

$$¥3,500,000 \div ¥149.5686 = $23,400.57$$

If you are paper filing your tax return, you can draw an asterisk and write, "See foreign earned income statement" at the bottom of page 2. Then, write a statement along the lines of on the foreign earned income statement at the bottom of the page. Sign your name to the note.

Lines 20-23 will be all zero for JETs, so Line 24 should be the same as Line 19. JETs don't have excludable meals and lodging, so Line 25 will be zero as well. So, Line 26 should be the same as Line 24.

ANNOTATION: The previous examples, namely Part III and Part VII, were filled out to show what a JET who did not return to the U.S. during 2025 would look like. If you returned to the U.S. any time during 2025, you must state those dates on Part III, Line 18. See the example below.

If you have no travel to report during the period, enter “Physically present in a foreign country or countries for the entire 12-month period.” Don’t include the income from column (f) below in Part IV, but report it on Form 1040 or 1040-SR.

NOTE: These are made-up dates! Yours will be different.

- If you were in the U.S. for less than 35 days total in 2025, your dates for Part III, Line 16 will still be January 1, 2025 through December 31, 2025. Part VII, Line 38 will still be “365.”
- If you were in the U.S. for more than 35 days total in 2025, you must also adjust the 12-month period on Part III, Line 16 accordingly to ensure the period includes 330 days outside of the U.S. (See our FAQ for an example.) This adjustment will change the number of days you report for Part VII, Line 38 and the related calculations. See the guide for first-year JETs for an example of how Part VII is reported when Part III, Line 16 is not January 1 through December 31.

Form 1040 – U.S. Individual Income Tax Return

Form 1040 is used to report how much total money you earned in 2025. You will figure out if you get a refund, or if you owe even more money to Uncle Sam. When in doubt, consult a certified tax preparer and/or the official IRS instructions (online) to be sure you do not miss anything. You can also call the IRS.

Depending on your situation, you may need to submit additional tax forms with Form 1040. What is explained in this guide focuses on the specific parts related to living and working overseas, which requires Schedule B and Schedule 1. Be sure to take a look at the Instructions for Form 1040, then start at the top and work your way through, line by line, completing and attaching any relevant Schedules as necessary. Some more common schedules are Schedule C for self-employment income, and Schedule D for capital gains/losses (e.g. sales of stocks/crypto). See this IRS list for more Schedules not covered here that you may potentially need to file.

Schedule B – Interests and Ordinary Dividends

Schedule B is used to report any interest/dividends you may have received for the year, in which case you would have received a 1099-INT, 1099-OID, 1099-DIV, or a substitute statement. If you received taxable interest of $10 or more, your bank or financial institution will send you a 1099-INT or 1099-OID that states the amount of taxable interest you will need to report to the IRS in Part I. Likewise, if you received taxable dividends, you will have received a Form 1099-DIV to report in Part II. Enter any interest or dividends you have received, otherwise enter zeroes for Schedule B Lines 1-6.

NOTE: Even if you did not receive a 1099-INT, you are still required to report any interest earned and credited to your account during the tax year.

Part III		You must complete this part if you (a) had over $1,500 of taxable interest or ordinary dividends; (b) had a foreign account; or (c) received a distribution from, or were a grantor of, or a transferor to, a foreign trust.
Foreign Accounts and Trusts		Yes	No
Caution: If required, failure to file FinCEN Form 114 may result in substantial penalties. Additionally, you may be required to file Form 8938, Statement of Specified Foreign Financial Assets. See instructions.	7a At any time during 2025, did you have a financial interest in or signature authority over a financial account (such as a bank account, securities account, or brokerage account) located in a foreign country? See instructions . . . . .	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	If "Yes," are you required to file FinCEN Form 114, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR), to report that financial interest or signature authority? See FinCEN Form 114 and its instructions for filing requirements and exceptions to those requirements . . . . .	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
	b If you are required to file FinCEN Form 114, list the name(s) of the foreign country(-ies) where the financial account(s) is (are) located: _____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	8 During 2025, did you receive a distribution from, or were you the grantor of, or transferor to, a foreign trust? If "Yes," you may have to file Form 3520. See instructions . . . . .	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
<small>For Paperwork Reduction Act Notice, see your tax return instructions.      Cat. No. 17146N      Schedule B (Form 1040) 2025 Created 4/23/25</small>

The main purpose of including this form in the tax guide is Part III Foreign Accounts and Trusts. As a JET participant, you must have a bank account in Japan to receive your salary. Your Japanese bank account is a foreign account, so you will answer "yes" to Part III 7a. To finish Part III, check yes, no, no as shown.

NOTE for Part III 7b: If your foreign bank account(s) exceeded $10,000 at any time during 2025, you are required to file FinCEN 114 (the FBAR), which will change your answer. See the FBAR page later in this guide for more specific guidance on filing FinCEN 114.

Save Schedule B and file it together with Form 1040.

Schedule 1 – Additional Income and Adjustments to Income

Schedule 1 is used to report your foreign earned income exclusion that you calculated in Form 2555 and any other additional income you may have received during the 2025 tax year. Whereas most of the items listed in Schedule 1 Part I add to your total income, your foreign earned income will be deducted from your total income.

For Schedule 1 Line 8d, enter your 2025 foreign earned income total from Form 2555 Line 26. The reason for Schedule 1 Line 8d being in parentheses is to indicate to the IRS that this value is going to be deducted in Form 1040. As for the other lines in Schedule 1 Part I, enter any values applicable to you.

Schedule 1 (Form 1040) 2025 Created 7/25/25

If you paid student loan interest, continue with Schedule 1. Unless you earned more than $100,000, you can just directly enter the amount of student loan interest you paid (up to $2,500) into Line 21. Otherwise, calculate your eligible student loan interest deduction from the worksheet in page 99 of Instructions for Form 1040. Finish following the instructions for the rest of Schedule 1. Everything else will be zeroes for many JETs.

NOTE: You cannot claim this deduction if you were claimed as a dependent on your parents' taxes this year.

Many student loan institutions report how much student loan interest you have paid by sending you (either by mail or electronically) Form 1098-E. If you make payments online, check there first to see if the student loan interest has already been calculated for you through an electronic file of Form 1098-E.

Save Schedule 1 and keep it open to reference for Form 1040.

Finally, we can start on Form 1040 without interruptions. Enter your name and social security number and check the box for your filing status. For the purposes of this basic guide, our example is filing single with no dependents, but this will vary according to your personal situation (e.g. if you have a spouse and/or children.) Then, fill out your Japanese address information. If you dealt with digital assets (e.g. cryptocurrency, NFTs) in the 2025 tax year or wish to contribute to the Presidential Election Campaign, then check the appropriate boxes. If you moved back to the US before July 1st, 2025, check the appropriate box.

NOTE: Some recent college graduates are claimed as dependents by their parents. If you have confirmed that this is your case, check the box labeled “Someone can claim you as a dependent” on the standard deduction section. This is important, as it will change the deduction you claim later on Line 12a, and can mess up your parents’ taxes if you miss it.

On Form 1040 Line 1a, enter any 2025 U.S. W-2 income. On Line 1h, enter your income from Japan (Form 2555 Line 26) and label it as “Foreign Earned Income”. Most reappointed JETs will only have the Line 1h amount to report. Add together Lines 1a-1i and enter the total into Line 1z.

If you had any interest or dividends to report from Schedule B, then enter them into the respective Form 1040 Line 2a-b and Form 1040 Line 3a-b. For many people, everything else is zeroes until you get to Line 8. For this, you will need to go to Schedule 1.

Enter the number you got from Schedule 1 Line 10 on Form 1040 Line 8. Make sure to put parentheses around the number again so that the IRS understands that you are subtracting this number. Then, add together Form 1040 Lines 1z-8. Enter this new number on Line 9. This total is your Total Income for 2025.

Next, if you continued to Part II Line 26 on Schedule 1, enter the number from that line into Form 1040 Line 10 and subtract Form 1040 Line 10 from Form 1040 Line 9. Enter the result into Form 1040 Line 11a. (If negative, use parentheses.) This is your Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) for 2025.

Go to the next page and enter the amount from Line 11a into Line 11b. Afterwards, enter either your standard deduction or itemized deduction on Form 1040 Line 12e (most people will claim the standard deduction: $15,750 for 2025). If you checked that someone could claim you as a dependent in the Standard Deduction section, check page 35 of the Instructions for Form 1040 and complete the worksheet to calculate your deduction. Most likely you will have the same standard deduction.

Line 13 deals mostly with self-employment deductions, which for many JETs will be "0." Add Lines 12e, 13a, and 13b and enter the result on Line 14. Finally, subtract Line 14 from Line 11b and then enter the result into Line 15 (If negative, enter "0".) This is your Taxable Income for 2025.

Your Tax and Credits section should look like this at this point.

If Line 15 is zero, Line 16 will also be zero. That was easy!

But if Line 15 is not zero, you have a little more math to do. Calculate your Tax for Line 16 using the Foreign Earned Income Tax Worksheet as shown below (from page 37 of the Instructions for Form 1040). For worksheet Lines 4 and 5, you will have to consult the 2025 Tax Table (page 68 of the Instructions for Form 1040).

If you owe no taxes your Tax and Credits section would look like this:

- If you must pay taxes, refer to the Instructions for Form 1040 on payment methods and where to send your payment.

After all that, remember to sign and date in the box. Save a copy of all your tax forms and then send it to the appropriate IRS address. You should be good to go after reaching this point, so don't wait until the last minute! (｡•̀-)✧おつかれ！

If you are living abroad when the official deadline to file taxes is due, you are automatically granted a two-month extension from April 15 until June 15. If, for some reason, you need additional time to prepare your tax forms, you can request an extension to file your taxes up until October 15 by filing Form 4868 (see tax guide for first-year JETs). However, any payments to the IRS you need to make must still be sent by April 15.

Once you have completed your tax return, sign and date the forms and mail them all to the IRS office in Austin, TX (or Charlotte, NC if payments are due). Your tax return will include at least Form 1040, Schedule 1, Schedule B, Form 2555, and the Foreign Earned Income Statement.

FinCEN Form 114 – Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR)

The FBAR is an informational form that must be filed only by anyone who had over $10,000 USD in their foreign bank account(s) at any point during the calendar year – not at the end of the year, not averaged, but on any singular day. The FBAR is filed separately from your Form 1040 and must be e-filed, regardless of how you file your tax return. You do not have to calculate any taxes or pay any money, but there can still be penalties for late filing or failure to file. The deadline to file the FBAR is April 15.

By “foreign bank accounts,” they mean just that: any non-American bank accounts, so not including any money you have sitting back home. However, if you have bank accounts in foreign countries other than Japan, or multiple Japanese bank accounts, the $10,000 limit will apply to all of them in aggregate. For example, if you have $5,000 in one foreign account and $5,001 in another, you must file the FBAR.

The FBAR uses the Treasury Reporting Rates of Exchange for the last calendar day of the year. For December 31, 2025, this was $1 = ¥156.61. Thus, if you had over ¥1,566,100 in your Japanese bank account(s) at any point during the year, you must file the FBAR.

NOTE: The exchange rate you use to convert from JPY to USD for the FBAR is different from the one you use on your tax return. Please do not confuse the two exchange rates.

The form will ask for bank information like the name and address of the bank, the name of the account holder, the account number, type of account (e.g. checking or savings), and the maximum value in USD of the account during the year. If you qualify to file with multiple accounts, you will need the info from all of them, even if any of them are individually under $10,000.

You can file your FBAR for free at the website indicated by the IRS guidelines:

<https://www.irs.gov/businesses/small-businesses-self-employed/report-of-foreign-bank-and-financial-accounts-fbar> For additional guidance, see Publication 5569 or the IRS guide to filing the FBAR.

Remember to fill out Schedule B as pictured below, answering “Yes” To Line 7b:

Part III		You must complete this part if you (a) had over $1,500 of taxable interest or ordinary dividends; (b) had a foreign account; or (c) received a distribution from, or were a grantor of, or a transferor to, a foreign trust.
Foreign Accounts and Trusts		Yes	No
Caution: If required, failure to file FinCEN Form 114 may result in substantial penalties. Additionally, you may be required to file Form 8938, Statement of Specified Foreign Financial Assets. See instructions.	7a At any time during 2025, did you have a financial interest in or signature authority over a financial account (such as a bank account, securities account, or brokerage account) located in a foreign country? See instructions . . . . .	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	If “Yes,” are you required to file FinCEN Form 114, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR), to report that financial interest or signature authority? See FinCEN Form 114 and its instructions for filing requirements and exceptions to those requirements . . . . .	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	b If you are required to file FinCEN Form 114, list the name(s) of the foreign country(-ies) where the financial account(s) is (are) located: JAPAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	8 During 2025, did you receive a distribution from, or were you the grantor of, or transferor to, a foreign trust? If “Yes,” you may have to file Form 3520. See instructions . . . . .	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
